

House Resolution No. 2191

Whereas, it is with tremendous pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause in their diverse legislative endeavors in order to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of Show-Me State educators who have admirably dedicated their time, talents, and energy to helping today's students garner the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary to become lifelong learners and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Nancy Seyer of Jackson has attained considerable distinction as a teacher at Immaculate Conception School; and

Whereas, on April 21, 2005, Nancy Seyer will enhance her already impressive record of achievement when she receives an Educator of the Year Award from the Jackson Chamber of Commerce at its annual Educator of the Year banquet; and

Whereas, Nancy Seyer will receive Educator of the Year recognition in the "parochial kindergarten through eighth grade" category; and

Whereas, a first grade teacher at Immaculate Conception School for seventeen years, Nancy Seyer has earned a Master's degree from Webster University; and

Whereas, Nancy Seyer is the beloved wife of Gary and the loving mother of Chander:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Nancy Seyer for an Educator of the Year Award from the Jackson Chamber of Commerce and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued personal and professional success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Nancy Seyer of Immaculate Conception School in Jackson, Missouri.
